Foreword

The duty of a yearbook is to present a review of the events of the school year
But we, the editors, feel that this is not enough to remember our senior year by
Do not forget the lonely triumph of Apollo 8, with Borman, Anders, and Lovell
Do not forget the shame of a nation, Czechoslovakia, and the barbarianism of the Soviets
Do not forget the horror of Biafra
Do not forget Julian Bond and his voice in the wilderness
Do not forget the pride of a state in the man
Edmund Muskie
Do not forget Bill Toomey and his arduous victory in Mexico City
These are the events which make the riverbank lining the tumultuous stream of civilization.

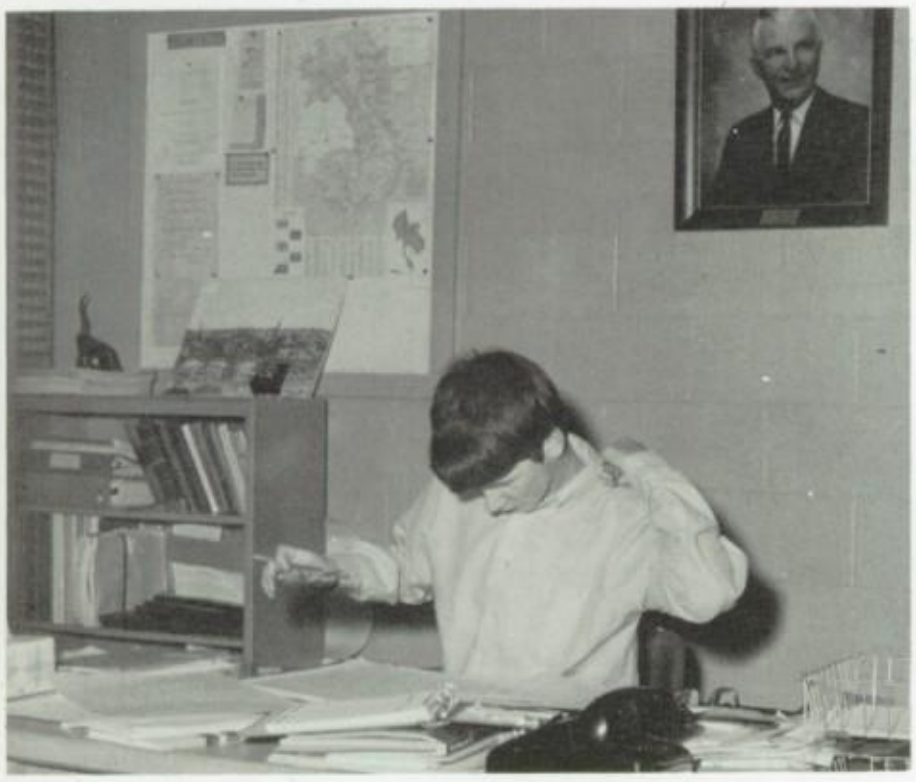
Presentation of Theme

John Donne's words live . . .



No man is an island entire of itself;

"Involvement" has been chosen by the editors of the Schola as the theme for the book of 1969. We feel that the key to living is locked up in this word.

Every man is a piece of the continent,
a part of the main.

Involvement should be the summation of the acts of an individual, and the total of which should be the guide whereby he should be judged. A person's contributions to the whole are as the whole, but no more so.

If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friends or of thine own were.

Involvement is defined by the boundaries of one's environment. The Ramster, key club, basketball, math class, etc. being our boundaries.

Any man's death diminishes me because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

But we should not be limited by our own surroundings. Our high school activities may at present be our environment, but we should not allow this to outline the future. The room for "involvement" in the future is as high and as wide as our imaginations.

Dedication

Mr. Philip Dugas, Principal

He has paced his way to the other side of day
where the sun shines
through the rainstorms
of our time.

A wave is rising, reaching white foam fingers to remove the sands
from seas.

He shall tread through the sand
as the seas sublime
And the sun shall rise.

Senior Class

The class of 1969, during their final year at G.H.S., were led by Paul Willis, president; James Magnusson, vice-president; Linda Harriman, secretary; and Jeannette Good, treasurer. Dennis Smith and Jason Tucker joined Paul Willis, Anne Woodbrey, John Emerson, and Karl Frank on the Student Council headed by Jane Philbrick, president through popular vote. Dennis Smith and Donald Keene represented the class in an unsuccessful mayor attempt, while Anne Lachance met success in the Miss Page One competition. The Senior strength was shown again as Jane Larrabee and Steve Brown were crowned King and Queen of the Winter Carnival. Unfortunately the senior class pulled an easy 4th place in the carnival, almost managing a perfect shut-out with a meager 18 points.

Towards the end of our last year here, Dennis Smith organized a monitoring system. Seniors who volunteered watched the corridors during class periods and during the lunch and recess breaks. Rules and regulations were set up for the monitors themselves and for them to go by with their fellow students.

A fried clam supper was held in the winter as a fund-raising project. Then came the spring and senioritis struck as college acceptances came, Senior banquet and prom plans were drawn up, caps and gowns were fitted and marching practice began. We spent four happy years at Gorham High School and we appreciate you G.H.S. for all that you have given us.

Class Ode

Yesterday's Gone

We laughed with all, the school year through
We know we've found happiness in you
For us Gorham was the one
But that was yesterday
And yesterday's gone.

Some walked together hand in hand
Through miles and miles of golden sand.
But now it's over and done
For that was yesterday
And yesterday's gone.

We had such happiness together
We can't believe it's gone forever
Wait til friends meet again
We hope that they'll remember when
Our days had just begun
We shared them yesterday
And yesterday's gone.

"We shared them yesterday and yesterday's gone."

Student Council

The Student Council completed one of its most successful years in the history of Gorham High School under the leadership of President Jane Philbrick. Elected with her was Chris Johnson as Vice President, Susan Ott as a secretary and Sonja Thurston as Treasurer.

The Council began its year by welcoming the incoming Freshman class at the Freshman Reception on the night of September 20. The mayor campaign, conducted by the Council, featured an assembly including skits by the candidates from each class. In the fall, Gorham sent three members to the Student Council Convention held in Caribou. Dennis Smith, Frank Siciliano and Larry Sawyer took part in the convention. Programs were printed for all home basketball games and post-game dances were sponsored.

At Christmas time, an assembly given by the teachers was written and directed by the Council. Mr. Webb played the role of Santa Claus in a sleigh, courtesy of John Reed. The first annual Christmas semi-formal was held the evening of December 21, produced by a committee headed by Anne Woodbrey. The tremendous success of the semi-formal was indicative of the hard-working spirit displayed by the Council all year. Also decorating their laurels is a new soda machine in the lower corridor and a smoking area still in effect when this deadline went to press. A successful Winter Carnival was sponsored by the Council on February 24 through the 28.

Lionettes

The Lionette Club has been very active this year under the able leadership of President Sonja Thurston. The other elected officers were Vice-President, Jan Kramlich; Secretary, Bridget Godfrey, and Treasurer, Alice Perkins.

Two objectives of the club were to sponsor a girl to Dirigo State and to give a scholarship. In order to finance these projects the girls gave a dance in early March and held paper drives and food sales.

In the line of public service the Lionettes sent brownies to servicemen in Viet Nam, participated in a Saturday morning reading hour at the town library, and collected for various charities.

Key Club

The Gorham Key Club had one of its most successful years this year. Arthur Boothby was elected president of the club, with Vice-President David Ott, secretary Charles McDowell, and treasurer, Mathew Rines. For the first time in the club's history, a lieutenant-governor, John Godfrey, was elected from Gorham for the divisional post. The club has worked on the Kiwanis Ski Slope and at the Horse Show in the summer. An assembly on juvenile delinquency was sponsored by the club along with other smaller school services. Several scholarships were presented at the year's end, and the club sponsored a junior to Dirigo State.

A.F.S. Club

Once again the A.F.S. Club was the most active in school. They had a new project added to the cause this year, selling note paper with scenes of Maine. They also held a square dance in November. The annual fair and dance was a great success. The officers were Jeannette Good, Anne Woodbrey, and Jan Kramlich. The year was not all work. They had fun giving a welcome party for Kiko and a Christmas party.

This year Gorham was most fortunate in that both of its applicants for the summer program were accepted. Jeannette Good spent a delightful summer at Manas, Brazil. Paul Willis spent his time in Cuzcuo, Peru. John Godfrey was accepted for the year program for 1969. He left at the end of January to live with his family in Bogota, Colombia.

National Honor Society

This year's program for the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was held April 10, 1969. The meeting was opened by Linda Harrian with a welcome to parents and visitors, followed by the pledge to the flag. She introduced each of the following speakers:

Susan Ott — who spoke on the meaning of the Emblem.

Jan Kramlich — who spoke on Character.

David Ott — who spoke on Schoarship.

Paul Willis — on leadership.

Chris Johnson — on service.

The taping of approximately twenty new members followed. As each was escorted to the stage, Anne Woodbrey presented him with a yellow rose.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Linda Harriman led the initiates in the National Honor Society pledge. Then each received a membership card and a key and signed the pledge.

The meeting concluded with a congratulatory message from the principal, Mr. Dugas.

The following were named the honor students of the class of 1969:

Elizabeth Arthur
Arthur Boothby
Suzanne Faunce
Eric Fyrberg
John Godfrey
Jeanette Good
Gail Grant

Gorham Takes Tri-C; 3rd in State Meet

As usual John Emerson and Mike Smith head the Gorham team.

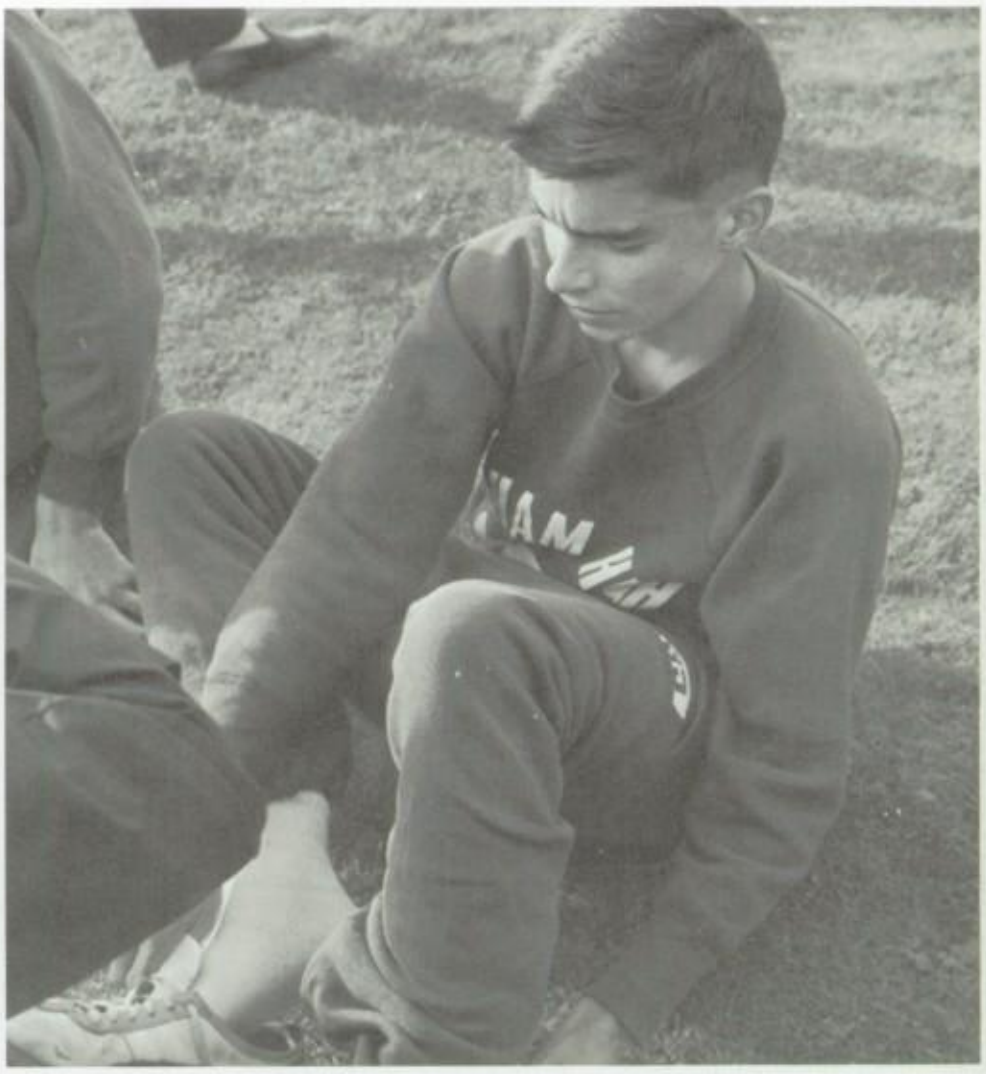
Gorham had an excellent 1968 cross country season, per usual. Coached ably by Mr. Dean Evans and led by the outstanding runner John (Emma) Emerson, Gorham tallied a perfect season, capturing the Triple-C harriers' trophy. In the Southwestern Maine champsionship at Riverside and the State Championship at Orono, Gorham competed against L size schools, turning in two very respectable performances, tying for second and taking third place respectively. The only schools giving Gorham trouble were Portland and Deering High.

Gorham had outstanding runners in John Emerson, Dennis Smith, and his brother Mike. Emerson shattered the home course record (again) as well as those of several other schools. The J.V.'s finished on top this season with an undefeated record. They also claimed the Tri-C title with Glen Nicholson copping first place. Scott Willey claimed first place at the freshman invitational meet held at Bath. Outstanding performances were shown by the entire J. V. team, especially by Glen Nicholson, Andy Magnusson, Henry Hamblen, Bruce Bumps, Kenny Rayburn, Peter Walker, and Mike Kilgore.

Mr. Evans checks his statistics before an important meet.

Denny Smith makes a great finish on the home course.

Denny Smith and Ken Rayburn run hard in competition at the Southwestern race.



Ken Rayburn appears to be involved with the minor details of a race.

Coach Stevenson plots strategy at half-time of the game.

Paul Willis forges ahead in an attempt to score.

Gorham scored its first perfect season in soccer since the sport's introduction to competition in the Triple-C schools. The 1968 season saw Mr. George Stevenson's booters rack up a perfect score of 10 wins and no losses. But fate caught up with the Rams as they were defeated in the first game of the Shaughnessy playoff system to determine the Triple-C championship. The team was narrowly defeated by Bonny Eagle in a game played on home grounds with a score of 2-1.

Gorham's successful season was built upon the base of a co-ordinated team effort led by co-captains, Karl Frank and Arthur Boothby. Sophomore goalie, Jack Fogg turned in an excellent seasonal performance, allowing only a very few goals to be scored. Other fine performances were turned in by seniors: Richard Emery, Paul Willis, Steve Brown, Bruce Howard, Bruce Morton, and Scott Agnew; juniors: Richard Marsh, Chris Johnson, and Frank Siciliano; sophomores: Mark Woodbrey, Paul Magnusson, Mike Barden, and Harold Garvin; freshmen: Barry Lyons and Dan Hoskin.

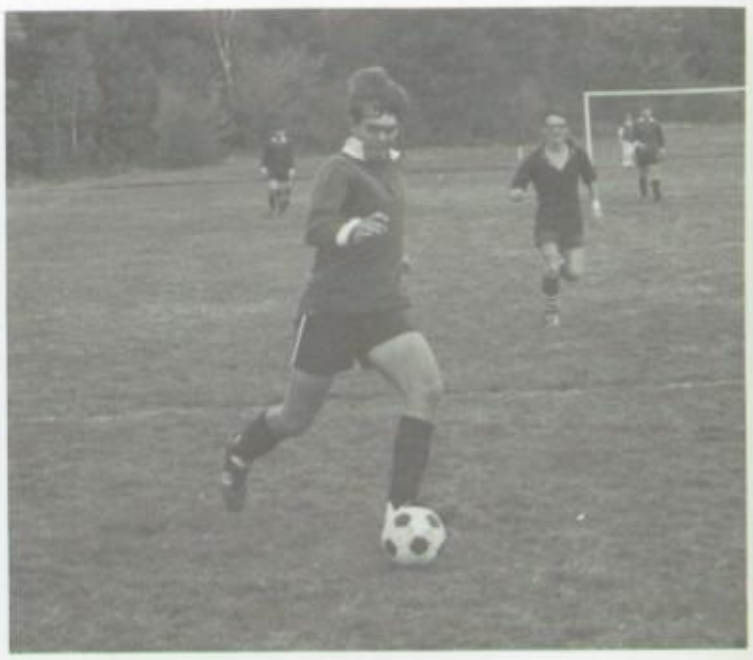
The Junior Varsity team showed excellent promise, sparked by the performances of Steve Mann, Dan Hoskin, Barry Lyons, Pat Martin, and Malcolm Herrick.

Despite the shattering loss in the semi-finals of the Triple-C playoffs, Mr. Stevenson and his team did not go unnoticed. For the second time in six years, Gorham received the John Kostopolous Memorial Trophy for outstanding Contributions to soccer.

Karl Frank, co-captain, dribbles the ball down the field ahead of the opposition.

Frank Siciliano seems to have his mind on things other than the coach.

Karl Frank and Mark Woodbrey move in for a chance at a goal.



Steve Brown, an able senior, brings the ball up the field.

Art Boothby, co-captain, of this year's team, boots the ball to our forwards.

Mark Woodbrey, sophomore starter, outsmarts the enemy in this play.

The J. V. team was composed of much new and promising material. The star player was undoubtably Judy Siciliano. Yet as happens to many great players, Judy was out of three games because of an injury. The team leaned heavily on freshman, Karlene Sewall, who proved to be a steady player with a smooth jump shot.

Judy Siciliano led the squad with a year total of 36 points, followed by K. Sewall with 29 points, and Pam Grovo, a true hustler, with 12 points.

Carla Brown is a player to be watched during the next three years. She has a fine jump, much grace, and could become one of the best players Gorham High has ever seen.

Other notables were: P. Landry, L. Barr, K. Kimball, D. Finlayson, B. Keene, V. Veino, M. Hamblen, J. Laverty, M. Morgello, and J. Clifford.

Twice Rams Crashed Cape

This year's schedule was a short one with only eight games. Margaret Martin proved for her fourth year that she is a true hustler and a polished natural on the court. She led the team in scoring with a 10.6 average, excellent for girl's basketball. Rating number two on the score card was junior, Mary Martin with an 8.6 average. She also represented Gorham High in the annual foul shooting contest in Portland. Jeanette Good followed with an 8.3 average.

Anne Woodbrey proved that she could pull down those rebounds as did Jane Philbrick. Beverly Herrick, Cheryl Riley, Dorothy Ouellette, Coleen Kennie, Cathy Libby, Donna Wood, and Mary Jane Mitsmen showed strength in the substitution area.

This year was Coach Ann Distant's last. Although this was not one of her most successful she has had many. Her efforts have been greatly appreciated. She will always be remembered for her fine sportsmanship.

Just Miss Tournament

The varsity team had a hard-luck season this year with an overall seasonal record of 8-9. The highlights of the year were the Bonny Eagle game away, 63-60 and Scarborough home 86-53, while they lost a heartbreaker at Cape.

The team seemed to lack only height in comparison to the other Tri-C teams but made up for it in fast breaks by seniors Karl Frank and Art Boothby. Jason Tucker aided in the rebounding and the foul line. John Emerson and Jack Fitch saw lots of action and were great assets to the team. Substitutes Steve Brown and Andy Magnusson also helped out in some tight spots.

Tri - C Champs in '68

The 1968 track team had a very successful year. During the regular season their only losses were to Biddeford and Falmouth. Although they were rated as an underdog they came through to capture the Triple-C Championship. Those who scored to make the win possible were; John Murchie, John Emerson, Tom Bassols, Dave Estes, Allen Cairns, Don Eaton, Eric Fyrberg, Russ Outhuse, Ralph Pride, John Reed, David Sawyer, Dennis Smith, Mike Smith, Bernie Wood, and Paul Young. Other members of the team who worked hard throughout the season were Michael Bumps, Paul Doucette, Sterling Williams, Jamie Godfrey, Charles Gagnon, Jaff Hawkes, Steve Hamblin, Henry Hamblin, Eddie Hunt, Chris Johnson, Craig Libby, Don Mitsmen, Paul Magnusson, Gary Noyce, Charles McDowell, Dale Mallory, Randy Nugent, Larry Sawyer, and Jeff Sanborn. These boys had a fine coach, Mr. John Sweirzynski and Assistant coach, Mr. Eric Pettengill.

Baseball

This year's team was coached by Mr. Peter Bastow, new at the high school. His team was led by some fine senior athletes, Art Boothby, Jack Fitch, Andy Magnusson, David Libby, Karl Frank, Richard Emery, John Merriman, and manager Barry Burnell.

The 1968 team, coached by Mr. Phillip Dugas, had one of its finest seasons. Their record was a very respectable record of 8 wins and 4 losses. They were third in triple-c stands, but lost their first playoff game with Greely 5 to 1. The two leading pitchers were a Junior, Art Boothby, and Neil Libby, a Senior. The other members of this fine team were Karl Frank, Steve Ernest, Dave Libby, Chuck Ernest, Mark Carpenter, Dennis Smith, Mark Woodbrey, Steve Willis, Michael Lurvey, Paul Young, Richard Wiley, Andy Magnusson, Paul Magnusson, Gary Briggs, Tom Heathcoat, John Merriman, Auther Keene, Bruce Allen, James Rickards, John Files, Wayne Gilman, and Dave Rickards.

Due to the weather and other factors the 1969 softball team had not been chosen by this deadline. The 1968 team, however, coached by Mrs. Ann Distant, had an average season with a record of 4 wins and 5 losses. The members of the team who earned their varsity letters were Charlene Dyer, manager, Jeanette Good, Cynthia Grovo, Beverly Herrick, Coleen Kennie, Jo Knight, Cathy Libby, Mary Jane Mitsmen, Cheryl Riley, Susan Williams, and Donna Wood. Those earning their J.V. letters were Judy Estes, Kathy Emmertz, Pamela Grovo, Marcena Hamblin, Kathy Kimball, Penny Sayward, and Victoria Veino. It might be observed that although they were hit hard with injuries at the end of their season, they still put up a good fight. They did beat Cape, Scarboro, and Falmouth by large margins.

Kiko

Over the last ten years Gorham High School has received eight students from all over the world and has sent five students abroad. This year it was our pleasure to receive a seventeen-year-old ambassador from a part of the globe not previously represented at Gorham High.

Kimiko Wakatsuki of Japan arrived in the United States early last August and now resides with the Philip Homan family of Gorham.

Kiko proved to be one of our most popular exchange students and early last fall became known as the girls' champion ping-pong player of G. H. S. Academically Kiko rated high in the class of 1969.

In Japan Kiko lives in a typical Japanese home of paper walls. Rice is frequently eaten for meals and chopsticks are almost always used. Most schools in Japan are segregated and the pupils must wear uniforms.

During her stay in the U.S. Kiko has been a fine example of a good-will ambassador from her native land. It is certain that when she returns home she will constantly strive as she has in the past year to make this a world of peace, love, and freedom.

Ann Lachance

Miss Page One

Eight candidates representative of the junior and senior classes made the vote a difficult one. After a close student election Ann Lachance reigned at the Miss Page One Dance in October. Other candidates were seniors; Linda Harriman and Gail Grant and juniors; Pam Seal, Cathy Libby and Deb Lowell.

This contest was sponsored by the Ramster Staff as in each other year. Jan Kramlich edited the newspaper for this year. Together with an increase of issues published a cartoon contest was held. Dana Perkins was the winner.

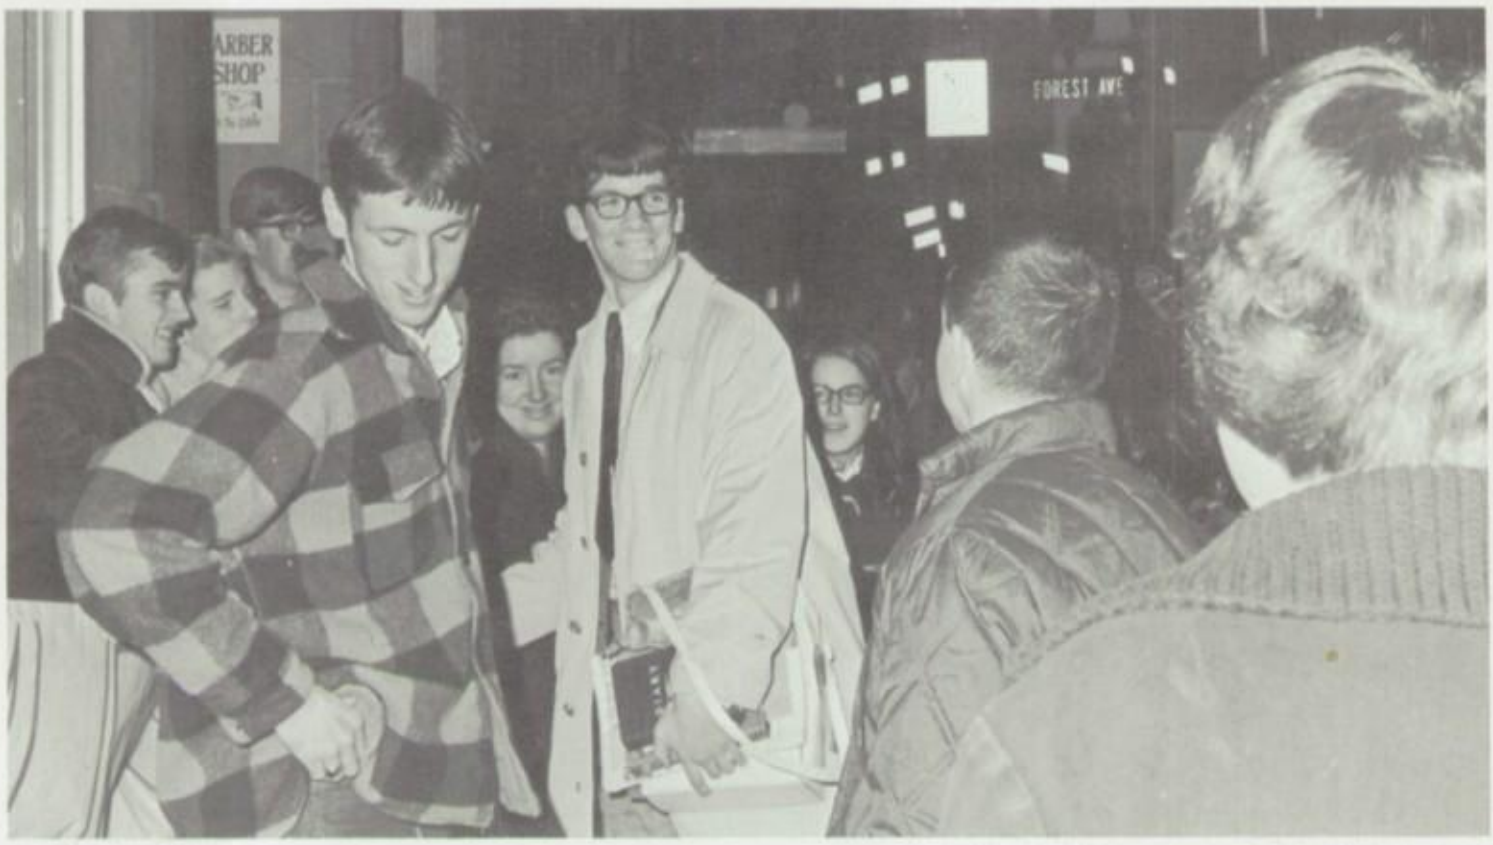
Assemblies

Emma presents his rare talents in the annual Christmas Assembly.

Mr. York delivered his talk on the humorous side of Maine History at one of the first assemblies of the year.

Mary models the latest fashions of the 1800's during one of our paid assemblies.

Andy gives a helping hand in his assembly on outstanding American presidents.



John Godfrey is leaving from Portland Bus depot early in February for his trip to Colombia. Due to bad weather John was unable to go by air and had to make last minutes plans for the bus.

Some seniors sit up a monitoring system and Don Keene is at one of their stations.

This March there was an open house held for parents. Here Mr. Shaw is greeted by Pam Riley at the door.

School Spirit

Mayor of GHS

This year's Mayor Campaign was sponsored by the student council. Competing for the title were; Freshmen, Barry Lyons and Randy Emery; Sophomore, Rudy Lee and Allen Cairns; Juniors, Frank Siciliano and Mike Smith and Seniors, Dennis Smith and Don Keene. Most of the candidates presented the student body with a skit. Rudy Lee came up with the winning skit and became Mayor Rudy Lee, G.H.S. for 1969.

Rudy Lee led in the traditional jug cheer. The mayor had a terrific sense of rhythm which added to the spirit of the jug. Presiding at each of the season's home games, Dennis Smith introduced the starters for each team. Also, Denny became the master of ceremonies at our rallies.

Mr. Dugas and Mr. Stevens "M.C." as Emma warms up the audience in the introduction.

Mr. Sendzik won the F.F.F. award for his imitation of Tiny Tim.

Christmas Assembly

Mrs. Wentworth, Mrs. Loveitt and Mrs. Estes gayly display their dancing abilities.

Mr. Ward merrily prances across the stage in his "Sugarcrisp" commercial.

G.H.S. was surprised by a mysterious guest on the 20th of December.

Does Mr. Scribner really have blood dripping down his chin?

Denny becomes a gentleman as he assists Linda.

Christmas Ball

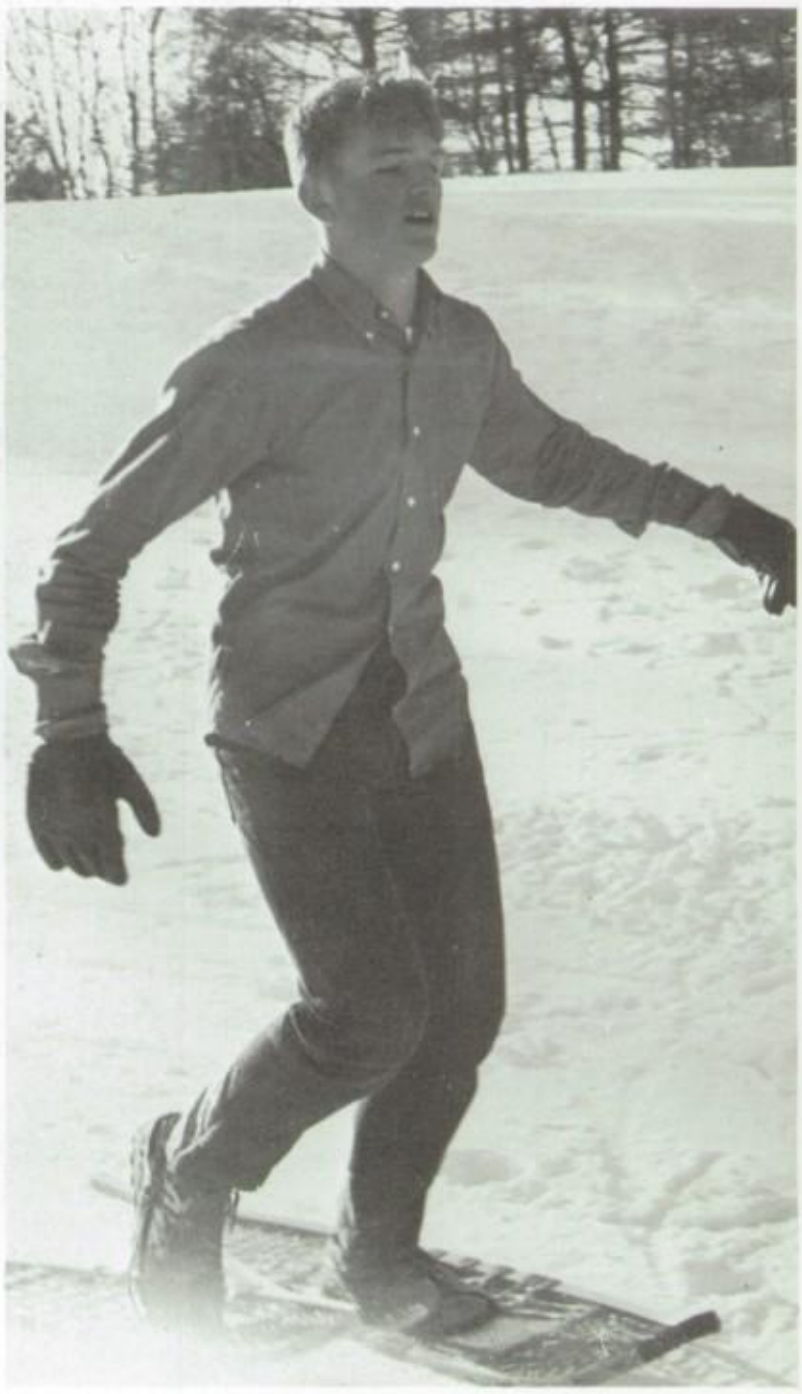
Sophomores Ann Bell and Tom Bassols enjoy the beat of "The Exception"

Sandy is proud to be with that handsome uniformed man, Steve Cobb.

Winter Carnival



The Winter Carnival got a late start because of an extended vacation. It was held March 1 to March 7. The winners were the class of '70 with 60 points followed by the class of '71, 56 points, class of '72 with 22 points, and the class of 69 with 20 points. Although the seniors lost out on points, their candidates, Jane Larrabee and Steve Brown, were elected King and Queen.

The Junior Class worked very hard under new president Gary Briggs. They had a dance, a calendar drive, and a series of food sales, all of which were very successful. Other officers consisted of Mike Smith, Cathy Libby, and Michelle Smith. Those who joined Chris Johnson, Carol Belanger, Frank Siciliano, and Sue Ott are Reggie Clark, Mary Gordon, and David Ott.

The juniors sent Frank Siciliano and Tim Wagner into battle for the title of Mayor. The girls who competed for Miss Page One were Deb Lowell, Cathy Libby, and Pam Seal.

Sophomore Class

This year's sophomore class was led by president, Larry Sawyer; vice president, David Rickards; secretary, Cathy Faunce; treasurer, Paula Gonya. The Student Council members elected were Karen Andrew and Tom Bassols and they joined Paul Magnusson and Larry Sawyer.

The greatest triumph of the class of '71 was the election of Rudi Lee, their candidate for mayor. This year's leader of school spirit is visiting Gorham from Chicago and residing with the Chamberlains. Allen Cairns was also a sophomore candidate.

As a means of income the sophomores held a dance in March and had a few food sales. The Ways and Means Committee consisted of Laurie Brooks, Jamie Godfrey, Martha Irish, Judy Siciliano, and Pam Manette.

Freshman Class

The freshman class had the dubious distinction of most incoming classes, that of having more students than most previous classes. The freshmen are thus contributing to the overcrowded conditions of the high school and should be eliminated. But unfortunately, they are here and have elected officers. Ken Rayburn is their president, performing his duties with the aid of Steve Willis as vice-president, Peggy Sawyer as secretary, and Paula Ward as treasurer. Eileen Dennett and David Grant were elected as Student Council representatives. The often times neglected, but necessary, Ways and Means Committee is composed of Julie Frank, Judy Howe, Pete Walker, and Thad Moody. As the Yearbook goes to press the freshmen are planning to sponsor a Valentine's Day Dance.
